

FIRST NATIONS AND INUIT SUICIDE
PREVENTION ASSOCIATION OF QUEBEC AND LABRADOR
DIALOGUE FOR LIFE V

YOUTH PROGRAM

Illustration: Parents, Leah Dorion, Prince Albert, Sask.

IN COLLABORATION WITH QUEBEC NATIVE WOMEN

CREATION OF A NETWORK
YOUTH FOR LIFE:

to give a voice to the First Nations and Inuit youth who want to embrace life, help one another, and tell us about their vision for their community and nation.

YOUTH AWARD 2007

to celebrate the accomplishment of a young person or a group of young people committed to a good life and who is an example in his/her community and nation.

December 1-2-3, 2007: Pre-Conference
Building a bridge for change Bringing youth and adults together

A 3 day interactive workshop offered to 30 youth and 30 adults with RECOVERY FOUNDATION to re-establish communication and positive collaboration between the generations and work together to build a better life in the communities. Have a youth and adult from your community participate so they can return and share their experiences.

($150. for the youth: 18-29 years old)

December 4-5-6, 2007: CONFERENCE

Workshops and exchanges between groups of young people of various nations on their common realities, their successes in the prevention of suicide and promotion of a good life. Cultural workshops, Elder teachings, peer helping.

($150. for 3 days: 18-29 years old)

FNISPAQL

Telephone: 514-933-6066 or 1-888-933-6066

Fax: 514-933-9976

dialogue@bellnet

3177 St-Jacques ouest, bureau 302

Montreal, Quebec H4C 1G7

www.dialogue-pour-la-vie.com